Baton Passed to LCHS By: Geneva Rauch

Roy Burket used 2 Timothy 2:1-5 to tell the LCHS students, faculty, and visitors about passing the baton of faith. He explained how faith is like a baton, and it has to be passed off from one generation to the next. To illustrate this idea, he used an example of how runners in the Olympics were disqualified if they couldn't pass the baton in the right zone. As Christians, he said, we don't want to be disqualified, so we have to train hard and be ready. However, the baton of faith isn't passed off automatically; one needs to be strengthened by Christ to get to the point where one can pass it off. He talked about how you can't just give up, because if you give up in a race, you will never be able to deliver the baton to the other person. You have to stay close to God, and, in this way, faith can be passed on to generations to come. To be ready to pass on your faith, he said, you have to be willing to both suffer for and submit to Christ. In this way you will receive the power of Christ. God will go through the hard times with you and 2 Timothy

Welcoming Imani By: Allie Petschke

Imani Bighorn is one of Lustre's newest freshmen. Imani was born and raised in Wolf Point, Montana. When asked what her favorite things to do outside of school were, she replied, "Playing basketball and hanging out with my friends." Imani's favorite sport to play is volleyball. One of Imani's favorite foods ever is pizza. She enjoys listening to rap music on her free time. Imani is attending Lustre Christian High School because her mother wants her to. So far her favorite thing about LCHS is the people here. One interesting thing about Imani is that she's six foot two inches and she's only 15! Let's give Imani a warm welcome to this 2015-2016 school year.

Learning about October Holidays By: Katie Byoun

In October, Halloween is the most famous holiday in the US. Halloween is celebrated on October 31, usually at night. The people dress in costumes and visit neighbor's houses. They say "trick or treat" hoping for the treat. Neighbors give candy or other sweets to them.

Halloween's origins come from the United Kingdom, especially Ireland. Two thousand years ago, Europe had a cold winter and many people died. The Celts believed dead people became ghosts and they came to the human world at Halloween to harm them. People wanted to hide from the ghosts; therefore, they started customs like belief in ghosts and saying trick –or – treat to be safe from the ghosts. Jack-o-lanterns also became a way to scare the ghosts away.

Do you know another holiday on October 31? National Caramel Apple Day is the same day as Halloween. Maybe you can try to eat or give caramel apples to children rather than candy.

What did you do for MEA Weekend? By: Jacques Ndengeyingoma

The MEA weekend ended with great memories for many Advanced Computer students, according to a recent survey. Ernest, Emily, Joyce, Jacques, Katie, and Monica all went to Billings. Ernest and Emily attended the Billings Church of Christ's annual youth rally. Joyce and Jacques took the TOEFL test while Katie worked on homework.

Afterwards, Joyce worked with cows. Monica just relaxed as did McKaylah, who also spent time with other people. MacKenzie went to town where she ate Mexican food. Allie traveled to Missoula and visited Mack, Morgan, Matthew and the baby. Geneva spent time babysitting, taking EMT classes, and going on runs with the am-balance as part of her EMT training. Jason and his family went to Mexico. Evan passed his time doing homework and working. Finally, Teagan said that he enjoyed the awkward moment between birth and death over the long weekend.

Baton

3:12 reminds all believers that those who desire to live godly in Christ will suffer. This is all the more reason to be committed to Him. Unfortunately, certain things can distract a person from submitting to God. Some examples he gave examples included T.V., video games, and undisciplined living. Our fallen nature causes us to live defiantly, holding back, unwilling to offer complete control to Christ. If we wish to have the desire to pass on the baton of faith, then we must submit to Christ and His power will fill us. His message ended with a reminder that one's submission to the rules says something about one's relationship with God.

"Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might."

Ephesians 6:10 (NASB)

Finding Treasure in God's Word By: Ernest Uy

On October 12, pastor Bill Sikes came to LCHS to speak at chapel. The first thing he expounded on was being excited about youth wanting to work in the mission field. He explained that as the years go by, more and more young people become interested in the mission field and bringing the word of God to others. Next, he described that if we share the same gospel, the same God, the same Christ, and the same hope, then we need to get along with each other and set aside our differences. He also called the Bible a treasure trove for God's people, because it offers spiritual truth, comfort, hope, help, and healing, to those who need it. He described Psalm 119 and how it explains the word of God, highlighting specific verses such as 1-2, 9, 11, 18, and 25. He taught us that the books of Ephesians and Galatians are about spiritual warfare and not losing heart, respectively. He also read aloud to us from Psalm 19, verses 1-10. Next, he spoke about what will truly last – a relationship with Christ, not riches or material things. He then concluded chapel by telling everyone that reading God's word is a privilege, not a requirement, and that we should be in the word of God.

Lions Defeat Wolves and Vikings By: McKaylah Lenihan

The volleyball season is coming to an end, with only two games left until District Tournament, in Scobey on the 29th-31st of October. Lustre played Brockton, at home, on October 2nd, coming out on top with three wins in a row. The next day, the Lions went all the way to Plentywood to play in a tournament against Scobey and their JV. The Lady Lions played hard and had some great moments in both games, but didn't manage a win. They only played two games for each match. Lustre lost by three points against the JV for both games. Against the Varsity, Lustre scored 11 the first game, and 15 the second.

The Lady Lions played hard this last week against the Wolf Point JV on Thursday, October 8th and then against Ophiem on Saturday, October 10th. In the game against the Wolf Point JV, the Lady Lions played really well, winning all three games in a row. There were some great digs and spikes. Against Ophiem, it was a competitive match that consisted of five games. Ophiem won the first match 16-25, and then the Lions won the next two. Ophiem won another game, and then the Lions won the last one, 15-9. The Lady Lions won the match. Tournament is coming up, but the season is not over yet!

A 'jiffy' is an actual unit of time:
1/100th of a second.

May 29th is officially "Put a Pillow on Your Fridge Day".

Each year, there are more than 40,000 toilet related injuries in the United States.

You can tell from the statue of a mounted horseman how the rider died. If all four of the horse's feet are on the ground, he died of natural causes. One foot raised means he died from wounds suffered in battle. Two legs raised means he died in action.
