Local Resident Recounts Family History By: Evan Bartel

One unique aspect of the Lustre Community is the deep roots of local families. Many of the folks who live around this area can trace their history on the land back a hundred years or more. Monroe Bartel is one of these people. He still lives on and farms the land that his father homesteaded near the turn of the century. The family has a long history that spans an ocean, and ultimately led them to become a part of our community.

The Bartel family originated in the Warsaw area of Poland. The first members of the family to arrive in America were John and Agethna Bartel. They left Poland and arrived at Ellis Island, New York on July 14, 1880, with their three children. They went on to settle in the Hillsboro, Kansas area. Here their children grew and started families. In 1916 two of the boys, John and Cornelius, decided to go homestead in the Montana Territory. They load-

Interview Given for Chapel By: Joyce Li

Can you imagine speaking in chapel without notes? Eunice Wiens is nearly blind, and, in order to share her story, Pastor John and she decided to do an interview of her in front of LCHS students and staff.

Pastor John began by asking her what her favorite Bible verse is. The answer was Ephesians 5:20, "Give thanks for all things." It means everything, good and bad, that God has given to us.

She went on to give her background. She is the second of nine children in her family. She graduated from Lustre Bible Academy in 1956. Her Father helped build the school. Suffering from ear nerve deafness, she started to wear a hearing aid and learned to read lips. Her favorite class in high school was Bible memorization class. By memorizing I Corinthians 10:13, she knew that God would help her through the difficulties and temptations.

During high school, she met Bill Wiens. However, it wasn't until after she finished two years of college

Teamwork Emphasized for Boys' Team

By: McKaylah Lenihan

It's the beginning of the season for Lustre Basketball and time to get pumped about this year's boys' basketball. Coach Randy has been preparing his team for the season. There is a good turn-out for the boys this year; even enough for a JV team. When asked about the goals for the season, Coach Randy said they are hoping to improve every day and eventually play on Saturday night at districts. He is excited about the competition and seeing improvement in each player.

Some specific things they are working on are teamwork, defense, and coming together as brothers. There is a lot to be excited about as this year's basketball season is starting up, and we look forward to seeing each player getting better and growing as a team.

Blue and White Teams Battle By: Teagan Friesen

December 1st, the Lustre Lions started off the basketball season with a blue and white scrimmage. The Lady lions blue team started with Halle Reddig, Kylie Kirkaldie, Kassie Kirkaldie, McKaylah Lenihan, Megan Fast, and Joyce Li coming off the bench with a total of 30 points as a team. The white team started Sadie Brown, Hannah Stewart, Emily Eggar, Taylor Reddig, Amber Reddig, and had Kaitlyn Toavs coming off the bench beating the blue team with 42 points.

The white team started Jacques Ndengeyingoma, Michael Brown, Zac Brown, Teagan Friesen, and Kyle Pederson with 60 total points. The boys blue team started Ernest Uy, Thomas Brown, Levi Brown, Etien Van de Gruter, and Michele Capasso falling short to the white team with 48 points.

ed their belongings and families onto trains and headed north. They established their homesteads near each other in 1917. Cornelius's family had a house built costing a grand total of seventy-one dollars and seventy-five cents. Here Cornelius and Martha Bartel raised their family. Their youngest boys, twins Monroe and Marvin, took over operations of the farm from their father in the 1940's. They operated the farm jointly until the 1980's when they divided their holdings. Monroe and his wife Wilma raised a family of three children, and today, they still live out on the farm.

When asked what he remembers about growing up he recalled vividly how he rode a horse to Pioneer school, not far from the homestead. He then went on to high school in Wolf Point. He recalls how they stayed in town during the winter months because of the difficulty of getting back up north in the snow. When asked about major historical events that occurred in his lifetime, he said he remembers the depression years, but they didn't seem that bad, because money had always been tight. He recalls when WWII came around. He recalls word of the Pearl Harbor attacks coming over the radio. He was too young to be drafted at first. Eventually he was called up, but he was given a deferment because he worked in agriculture. After his year was up, he was on his way to his physical in Great Falls when word came through of the atomic bombing and the war's end.

The Bartel name is one that has been a part of the community for a long time. As the centennial of the first homesteads in Lustre approaches and we take a look back and examine the history, we can see a proud legacy left for us by those first pioneers. They took a chance on a new frontier and built the communities we call home.

My Dad's Better Than Your Dad

Three boys on the playground were bragging about their dads. One said, "My dad scribbles a few words, calls it a song and they pay him 50 bucks."

"Oh, yah. My dad scribbles a few words, calls it a poem and they pay him 100 bucks."

"That's nothin'," said the third kid. My dad scribbles a few words, calls it a sermon and it takes six people to collect all the money!"

Fun Facts

Santa Claus is based on a real person, St. Nikolas of Myra (also known as Nikolaos the Wonderworker, Bishop Saint Nicholas of Smyrna, and Nikolaos of Bari), who lived during the fourth century. Born in Patara (in modern-day Turkey), he is the world's most popular non-Biblical saint, and artists have portrayed him more often than any other saint except Mary. According to <http://facts.randomhistory.com/christmas-facts.html>, he is the patron saint of banking, pawnbroking, pirating, butchery, sailing, thievery, orphans, royalty, and New York City.

after high school that they married and had four children. When the children were high school age, their friends were welcomed into the home. Now, Bill and Eunice have been married for 57 years and have known each other for 63 years.

Eunice has had several occupations. Wife and mother top the list, but she also worked at Lustre Grade School as the cook of 75 people for 8 years. The children at the school developed really good relationships with her. She has taught quilting classes, too.

The hardest time for her was when her oldest son had a car accident and was severely injured. While he was recovering, Thanksgiving came along. She was very thankful her son made it through, although his injury was really bad.

Another challenge for her was learning she had cancer in 2001. She felt really fortunate her doctor guided her one step at a time, and she got really nice Christian nurses. She also started to make quilts for cancer patients. The quilts were given away even if no one was thankful, because she didn't do it for herself, but for the glory of the Lord.

Later on, she made quilts regularly, four every 2 weeks, to raise money for charity. It's been 30 years since she began doing it.

Ending the chapel, Pastor John read an article which compares life as a quilt, made of pieces of fabrics, not completed, and sometimes with holes. However, the more holes it has, the more the light of Christ will shine through it.

giving thanks for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God,

Father..."
