ERNEST ENTERS LCHS By: Jacques Ndengyingoma

One of the new freshman at LCHS understands the importance of being Ernest. Coming to LCHS at 14, being 5'3" tall, and originating from the Philippines is Ernest Uy. He and his family live in Wolf Point, Montana. While his parents work as lab technologists, Ernest says he enjoys riding the bus to school every morning.

Why is Ernest here? He says he wants to learn more about God and is enjoying the school and the friendly community of Lustre. He loves his classmates because of their friendliness and the help he gets from them.

In his spare time, he loves playing basketball, fishing, and driving radio control cars. Classic rock is the type of music he likes to listen too while long and interesting books are his preferred reading material. When asked what he likes to watch, he said action movies, science Television shows and documentaries.

He also likes to play the clarinet. However, his biggest pet peeve is when people misspell words.

One day, Ernest would like to get his dream job: being one of the people to design LEGO sets. If he had a chance to go somewhere, it would be to the amazon on a fishing trip. He also said that if he could go back in time, he would go to the time of the dinosaurs.

Once you meet him, you'll soon see why we sure enjoy having Ernest Uy in the school.

MR. MARASCO GIVES FIRST CHAPEL By: Jason Toavs

Mr. Marasco was given the privilege of doing the first chapel of the school year on Thursday the 10th. His topic for this first chapel was chapel. He started by asking the questions: "Why do we do chapel?", "What do we do in chapel?", and "What are his expectations of all the students as an audience?" Some of the answers for the first question were that we do chapel because it is a Christian high school and it is a time for everyone at the school to fellowship together as well as an opportunity to learn about God. Mr. Marasco then shared the scripture passage Psalm 78 and the verses Deuteronomy 6:7 and Ecclesiastes 5:1. Answers for the second question included singing/ worshiping, listening to speakers, and praying. Finally, the expectations of the students were to participate, to recognize that this is a special time, and be respectful to the speaker as well as other people in the audience. Mr. Marasco concluded by giving this school year the theme verses Micah 6:6-8.

LADY LIONS EARN WINS By: MacKenzie Teichroew

For the first time in a while the Lustre Lady Lions volleyball team has had enough girls to have both Junior Varsity and Varsity teams. According to a few girls on the team having more girls has lightened the load of responsibility on everyone.

Our girls Junior Varsity team had an opportunity to play the Lady Warriors on Friday the 11th at Brockton. The very first match the JV team played, they obliterated the Warriors with final scores of 12 to 25, 22 to 25, and 9 to 15.

Then it was show time for the Lady Lions Varsity team. The two teams came close on the score board but the lady lions overcame the obstacle and won with a starting score of 16 to 9. They then followed with scores of 25 to 11, 11 to 25, and 25 to 7 allowing them to win the match.

Then the next day, they turned around to play the Opheim Vikings on the 12th. While the JV team didn't play, the varsity team won three of the four matches against the Vikings. The final scores were 16 to 25 win, 17 to 25 loss, 8 to 25 win. The night ended with a win of 25 to 18 giving the match to the Lady Lions.

Then came Friday the 18th when the Lady Lions duked it out with the Scobey Spartans on the Spartan boards. They fought to scores of 25 to 4, 13 to 25, and 25 to 8, but it wasn't enough. They went down fighting as a team, and that is what is important in the end. We are proud of you ladies; keep on fighting!

TAKE DELIGHT IN GOD By: Ernest Uy

Have you ever wondered what it really means to delight in God? Carey Olson, a retired pastor, came to LCHS on September 17, 2015 and really defined this for all in attendance. He asked what things everyone found delight in. A few answers were thrown out, like horses, people, food, and books. He then described that God is so much more; He's someone people can and should delight in, and that each person needs to decide now to follow Him. In order to delight in God, he said it is important to delight in the scriptures, the commandments, and try our hardest to know Him. Using Psalms 37:4 and 139, Mr. Olson explained God's omnipresence and all-knowingness as well, and encouraged everyone to strive to know Him more.

LCHS UPDATES TUITION OPTIONS By: Diane Unrau

LCHS is working together with a company which will manage the tuition/enrollment as well as the financial aspects for our students. Parents should have recently received an email from TADS to ask you to click on a link to re-enroll your student(s). Please do this and follow the prompts to create an account and enter some information for their records. We have provided much of the information already for your student(s), but they will need an account set up so the students will roll over for next year's enrollment process or for communications this year.

Later on you will receive an email to set up the financial aspects and to choose the payment plan you would like to use. We will inform them of payments received to date so they know where to begin the billing cycles.

Thank you for setting up your account at your earliest convenience. If you have questions or have not received an email from support@tads.com, please let us know

Students Enjoy First Dorm Weekend Out

By: Katie Byoun

What did you do for dorm weekend out?

Joyce— Jared & Brooke Holzrichter

We rode horses at John and Lavonne's, made tie-dye cake for Curt's birthday and had lunch with Curt and Lisa's family after church.

Jacques – Ron & Jeri Redding

I got to work with the most skilled man in what he does. I got to put the windshield in a Ford Expedition and put the sprinkler system in his yard.

Aleyna – Kelly & Michelle Toavs

I had an awesome time. I went on a hike with Kaitlyn and Saturday we went jet skiing at Fort Peck Lake. I am so glad that I went.

Etien – Sarah Brown

I had a blast at the Brown's and didn't know working cows would be fun, to be honest. Staying over with Michael's family was a fun experience, and I'll look forward to spend more time with them.

Michele - John & Sharon Skillman

In this dorm weekend out, I shot with a gun, rode a bike, prayed everyday, did my homework and played a game with Pastor John. I was really happy because it was the first dorm weekend out.

Sue- Landon & Mindy Olfert

On the first day, we went fishing and pushed the car. On the second day, we went to town and ate supper. On the third day, we went to church and walked around the house.

Katie— Landon & Mindy Olfert

I pushed the car with Mindy and Sue. That was a very special memory.

Hannah— Bill & Trisha Redding

I got to go to town and walk around. Also, we ate out at a pizza shop. After that, we went home and watched a movie. On Saturday, we played outside with the horses and the cats.

Jackie – Jerry & Susan Fast

I got to help clean out vehicles like semis and trucks. We also got to hang out with Bill and Trisha's family.
