Sifuentes Explains Message of Cross By: Shelby Reddig

What is the message of the cross? Pastor Tony Sifuentes, from the Wolf Point Assembly of God church, focused on this question for chapel on April 27th, 2017. He began with reading the passage John 3:13-21. The message of the cross is a message of love. Romans 5:8 says, "But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

We should spread this verse to our family, friends, and everyone else we associate with. God sent His Son to die for us because He loves us. John 3:16 reveals the heart and love of God. He wants all men to be saved, and He gives us all the opportunity.

Secondly, the cross is a message of liberty in the Holy Spirit. God puts the fruit of the Spirit in us, like love, kindness, and gentleness.

Lastly, it is a message of eternal life. Eternal life is the gift of dwelling in God's presence forever. It is a divine type of life. We must be able and willing to acknowledge God's gift of ultimate salvation. He is the only one who can save us. We must trust Him and rely on Him. As Christians, we are to surrender ourselves to Him and give up our own comfort and security so others may also receive God's love.

Lustre Sweeps Music Festival in Wolf Point By: Etien de Gruiter

District Music festival this year took place in Wolf Point, MT, on April 21st and 22nd. The school's choir performed Paul Revere's Ride and Gloria, while the band played Be Still My Soul and The Colonial March. There were also a couple more solos and quartet performances, Michael played Country Dance, the cowgirl quartet that consisted of Shelby, Amber, Sadie, and Kaitlyn performed The Jolly Cowboy, Kaitlyn and Kylie played Corrente as a clarinet duet, and the Lustre Quartet which consisted of Thomas, Kyle, Kaitlyn, and Emily sang Offertory.

The following day Etien sang Wiegenlied followed by the Little Light Quartet which consisted of Kylie, Kassie, Emily, and Kaitlyn. Following their performance was Emily with Little David Play On Your Harp and was ended with Megan who sang Wonderful, Merciful Savior. Everyone who did a solo or a small ensemble received a one (superior) and seven of the eight groups are advanc-

Workers Celebrate May Day By: Etien de Gruiter

The first of May has always been associated with May Day, otherwise known as workers day. This "holiday" is celebrated internationally and is executed differently in various parts of the world. One may be out giving a speech about the importance of American workers or down in the streets of Indonesia doing a "proper demonstration march;" they all do it in their own unique way.

The official holiday began on May 1, 1886, where more than 300,000 workers in 13,000 businesses across the United States walked off their jobs during the first May Day celebration in history.

The Federation of Organized Trades and Labor Unions (which later became the American Federation of Labor), proclaimed that "eight hours shall constitute a legal day's labor from and after May 1, 1886." this all came to effect because 40,000 went out on strike with the anarchists in the forefront of the public's eye.

Today, American children may put small baskets on doorknobs of friends and family. In England, kids celebrate the day by moving back and forth around the May pole with colorful streamers.

May day can be a mess, or a peaceful demonstration, it just falls on the workers to conduct themselves properly.

Student Council Elections Take Place By: Michael Brown

Student council elections rolled around again on May 4, 2017, and the speeches were once again excellent. The candidates discussed everything from being the only candidate, to looking toward next year's election, to promising to try to get a study hall. Some speeches were funny, while others serious, and still others made up on the spot and overly hilarious.

When election day came, the results were as follows: Thomas beat no one to become president while Zach Brown defeated Kaitlyn Toavs by a slim margin to earn the Vice Presidential position. Emily Eggar won the treasurer spot unchallenged. Kassie Kirkaldie defeated Megan Fast to become secretary, and Terry Allmer defeated Sadie Brown and Ernest Uy to become the next member at large.

Congratulations to the winners and good luck in your roles next year as leaders of the school!
