LCHS OPENS NEW YEAR WITH PIE FEED By: Jason Toavs

The annual LCHS Opening Program kicked off the new school year was held on Sunday, August 30 in the high school gymnasium. Mr. Butler, the music director, opened the program by leading the singing of the hymn "To God Be the Glory" followed by a devotional from Pastor John. The school administrator, Mr. Young, then introduced all of the school staff as well as board members, Dorm Committee, and the Foundation Committee. Each person was given a prayer card to give to someone in the audience to remind them to pray for them. After all the cards were handed out the new dorm parents Lucas and Naomi Lorenz each gave their testimonies and the LCHS choir class performed "For the Beauty of the Earth" for special music. Following an offering, all of the students in each class were introduced by their class advisors and were also given prayer cards to hand out. Finally, the board

ANNUAL R & R DAY HELD AT FORT PECK By: Ernest Uy

Every year, a few days after school starts, LCHS students and staff participate in an R&R day. The purpose of this is so the students and teachers get to know each other better. This year, the R&R day activities were held in Fort Peck.

Immediately after arrival, there was some free time for students prior to the speakers and before lunch. Mister Marasco and several students hiked to the dam from the shelter. Once there, some climbed down the dam face, and spent a while relaxing by the water. Others chose to stay in the campground, and walked around. Once the hikers and Interpretive Center attendees returned to the shelter, it was time for the speakers to present the

WHAT IS LABOR DAY? By: Emily Eggar

Whether you went camping, had a family picnic, or just stayed at home, Labor Day weekend is a great time to just relax and have fun! Though it may be restful and enjoyable have you ever wondered how it came around?

Labor Day was created to recognize the hard working citizens and all that they do for our country, both economically and socially.

The first Labor Day that was recognized as a holiday in Oregon on February 21, 1887. During 1887 other states including NY, NJ, MA, and CO celebrated Labor Day. By the end of that decade Labor Day was also a holiday in CT, NE, and PA. By 1894, 30 states had adopted Labor Day to honor their hard working neighbors.

Congress made Labor Day an official holiday on June 28, 1894 in both the U.S. and the District of Columbia.

So as you go through the year I hope you remember that every hard working American, including you, are highly appreciated and celebrated. Thank you for all that you do and we hope you have a great year.

LADY LIONS SPIKE AGAIN By: Allie Petschke

The Lustre Lady Lions started the 2015 volleyball season at a tournament in Culbertson on August 29th. The first opponent they faced was the Scobey Lady Spartans. The Lions fought hard, but, sadly they lost that round. Next the Ladies played hard against Bainville. Despite fighting for every last volley, they ended the game with yet another loss. For the last match of the day, the Lady Lions played against Savage. It was a hard effort but the Lions lost this match also.

The following week the Lady Lions played the Glasgow Scotties on their home turf on September 3rd. The Lions' varsity girls played the Glasgow JV team and the Lion's JV team played against the Glasgow Freshman team. The varsity Lions played a good game but they lost to the Glasgow Scotties. The JV Lions fought hard and long, but, sadly the Scotties came out on top.

The next day, on September 4th, the Lady Lions traveled to Nashua to play against the Lady Porcupines. They came close during all the matches but they just couldn't seem to pull ahead. It was a close game with the Lion's having 23 and the Porcupines had 25 at the end of the first match.

So far, the Lady Lions are fighting hard and improving more and more after each game. The first home game is September 25th. Come join us in cheering on the Lady Lions for what promises to be an exciting season!

Bible verse for the school year, Micah 6:8, as part of the devotional time. Mr. Marasco, Mr. Orr and Pastor John demonstrated the meaning of this verse.

More free time followed the speakers prior to Mr. Leland cooking the burgers and hot dogs for lunch. Everyone ate then had dessert, cooked by the seniors. When lunch was over, everyone got back on the bus and drive to Fort Peck and played a great game of softball at the field. Afterward, we went to the park beside the field, rested in the shade, and drove back to school.

“He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”

INTRODUCING “AWESOME” EMILY By: MacKenzie Teichroew

It was my pleasure to interview the new freshman, Emily Eggar. One of the first things she mentioned is that she is super excited her favorite season, fall, is fast approaching. Her nicknames are Em or Gumdrop, and she enjoys joking around. She was born April 30, of 2001 to her parents Shawn and Christine Eggar, residents of Wolf Point. When asked about her pets, she said that she and her parents ranch rabbits.

Emily said that her role models are her older brother, who is in college, and her cousin Jeremiah. She loves talking to her friends and hanging out with them. Listening to Christian rap and Christian rock are two of her favorite musical activities. Her life verse is found in Isaiah 40:8 which says “The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of our God endures forever.” When asked what her all-time favorite gift was, she replied that her phone was the best gift ever. Doctor Who, as well as an assortment of crime shows, are the TV programs she prefers watching.

Interestingly, her absolute favorite historical person is Queen Esther. Terri Blackstock is her favorite author. Her biggest pet peeve is people who answer with short texts like, “K.” The song which she said best describes her is, “It’s On,” by Superchick. So far, her favorite class is drama and her favorite teacher is Mr. Marasco. She would describe herself as fun, outgoing, loud, and exciting.

Everyone is looking forward to getting to know her better, and I hope you will too.

chairman Kelly Toavs gave a speech and Pastor Frank concluded the program with prayer. The Student Council served pie afterwards as a fundraiser.

PRESENTING LUCAS AND NAOMI LORENZ By: Evan Bartel

As the students and faculty at LCHS settle into the routine of a new school year, we welcome the new dorm parents, Lucas and Naomi Lorenz. We here at the Tumbleweed asked them a few questions to get to know them better.

TW: Where are you originally from?

Lorenzes: Lucas is a 5th generation Montanan and proud of it. His mother's family originally settled in Freud, MT back in the day, but moved to Missoula after the first generation passed. Naomi is from Washington State but her family moved to Bozeman, MT when she was 14 to be closer to her grandparents (in Idaho).

TW: How did you find out about Lustre?

Lorenzes: Naomi first found out about Lustre when Darin Brown, John Ortman and Joe Fast came to Bozeman to attend MSU. These men became friends with Naomi's older brother Ben through the Grace Bible Church College and Career group. When Darin and Sarah married in 1996, Lustre became a destination place for us. The next few years a lot of kids came from Lustre to attend MSU-Bozeman. Lucas got to know many Lustre and Wolf Point students when he lived at the Bobcat Lodge apartments and specifically Landon Olfert while helping in junior high youth group and Naomi was roommates with Racquel Wall while attending MSU. The Lustre crowd was well liked and respected.

TW: What do you like most about the community?

Lorenzes: What we appreciate most about the Lustre community is the teamwork. In these days, Lustre is a unique place where families still pray and play together. They also take care of family and friends. It is amazing how everyone pulls together to make events happen and support the school.

TW: Is there anything you would change?

Lorenzes: How about we add a post office, a gas station and a McDonalds!

TW: what do you enjoy most about being the dorm parents?

Lorenzes: Both Lucas and Naomi have extensive church involvement with youth; everywhere we go we have been involved with ministry to youth. We have also thought about being dorm parents overseas in a missionary capacity. Naomi worked at a mission boarding school in Bolivia in 99-2000 where she was a staff advisor for the junior high girls' dorm. It was such a wonderful, rewarding experience being a positive influence in these girls' lives and helping them succeed away from home.

TW: Do you have any major goals for your first year in the dorm?

Lorenzes: Our goals for our first year are to do the best we can to give the students a safe, healthy and happy environment. Secondly, to get to know community people and attempt keeping names and families straight. Third, to please the Lord by loving and serving his people. Fourth, to survive and thrive into a second year of dorm parenting.
