THE TUMBLEWEED

What Do You Do When There Is Nothing You Can Do? By Ashley O'Hara

December 10, 2020's chapel happened during the first period of the day.

We had Mr. John Miller come to speak to the staff and students. Mr. Miller talked about what do you do when there is nothing you can do?

To start off he asked the students if there was ever a time where we thought God was angry at us and put us in a situation for a reason. After some students raised their hands, he continued to ask more questions. He then asked, if we ever felt like we were in a situation that we felt hopeless and had no idea what to do. Sean answered, and talked about how he tried to bring an old friend to Christ and he felt like and still feels like there is nothing he can do, except pray.

Mr. Miller then shared a personal and sad story. There was a man who was always caring and willing to help others.

One day, he saw a lady fall on the street when he was at a light. He then, proceeded to get out of his car and help her up. They discussed where she lived and the possibilities of how he can help her. They came to the conclusion that; she would just sleep on the couch at his place that night. After the woman had different ideas, she got up and left and contacted the police. Fifteen minutes later, the cops showed up to John's door. He was accused of assault.

There was no evidence to prove he did it, because he did not assault the woman. After being brought to court and to the jury he was sentenced to 25 years without parole.

This event is a very sensitive story because this man is his

For Chapel on December 3, the Worship Team opened us with the songs King of Kings, Joy to the World, and one other song.

After that, Steve Trimble came up and led Chapel. His title was "So, you had a bad day," and he spoke to us about what we do if we have a bad day.

He explained to us how two days before the chapel. He had two nurses not be able to come to work at the nursing home that day because they were feeling sick.

He was short-handed, and one of the nurses told him that one of the patients was purple and couldn't breathe. They called the doctor from the hospital and had him help.

Steve had to leave and interview people coming in to make sure that they had no known viral symptoms.

Two hours later the doctor came in and told him that the lady had passed away.

That is a bad day.

It's Finally Here!

By: Braeden Toavs

After a long persistent wait Lustre's favorite time of year has finally arrived! No, it's not Christmas or New Years, It's basketball season!

After a long and tedious wait, the Lustre boys' and girls' teams began practice on the seventh of December, almost a whole month after it should have started.

Though rather inconvenient, the Lustre teams are thankful for the chance to even have a season at all due to the circumstances of COVID.

Coach Randy Reddig and assistant coach Justyn Klatt kicked off the season for the boys' team with an inspirational devotion, from Isaiah, about teamwork and the importance of brotherhood.

Head Coach Bill

Reddig kicked off the season for the girls' team with a devotion from the book of Matthew; he told the team, he encourages them to have fun, but also to put their hearts out on the floor whether it is practice or game time. Truly inspiring words from the coaches.

The LCHS teams will continue to practice over the Christmas break; then upon return to school on January fourth. The LCHS athletes will play their first game in the Lion's Den against the Bainville Bulldogs on January eighth. The Lions will play against Frazer Bearcubs on the ninth in Frazer.

LCHS encourages everyone to enjoy the holidays and wishes everyone safe travels for those who plan to commute.

Also, for those who are traveling, LCHS encourages all fans to come back and support the Lustre Lions and Lady Lions for a new season of good old-fashioned basketball!

Until then, have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

son-in-law.

What can you do when something like this happens? You might feel hopeless or like John's son in law feel grateful that God put you in this situation.

While in prison, Mr. Miller and his son in law exchanged letters and his son said that he felt empowered by God and how he can't wait to give his father a hug.

When all goes wrong, have hope and look to God to get you through the storm.

He said that the way we get through it is by leaning on God and lots of prayer.

There is also a quote I like that speaks to Steve's topic well, "Life isn't about waiting for the storm to pass. It's about learning how to dance in the rain."

We need to take our bad days in stride, because we will have lots of those. We can only do that if we lean on God and ask him to help us through them.

Welcome to LCHS!

Meeting Cayden Klatt By: Kenny Shema

This week I had the opportunity to talk to one of the 3 freshmen boys, Cayden Klatt.

Talking to Cayden, he told me a lot of stuff that I didn't know about him. Like his favorite color which was blue, his favorite sport which was, of course, basketball, his favorite class, which was surprisingly Algebra 1 considering how hard it can be at first for a freshman.

I asked him how he felt about high school, he said that, "it is fun and I like it, it is a big adjustment coming from grade school, but there is a lot of people willing to help and make things easier for me and others."

I also talked about Cayden's football season, he said that he liked it, even with the restrictions and canceled games, he said that he enjoyed the few games he had and he wished that he had played more games with his friends and teammates.
