The TUMBLEWEED

Schmeckfest was a Feast By Sally Arai

Every year in March, the Lustre community hosts a German smorgasbord, live and online auction, bake sale, and live entertainment to support LCHS. This year, Schmeckfest was held on Friday, March 24th. Lustre was a beehive of activity in the week leading up to Schmeckfest. All the high school students, teachers, and the Schmeckfest committee members helped out to set up everything on Wednesday and Thursday. Finally, the big day arrived. Many people came to take part in the festivities on Friday evening. We served over 600 people delicious meals and desserts. All the meals were made by people from Lustre community and German traditional food. As people were finishing up their meals, the live auction began at 7 pm. The auction is the big part of our foundation. This year, there were nine auction items which were donated by John Toews, Joan Unger, Carma Bartel, Sean Heavey, MB Church Ladies, C&B Operations, EMB Ladies, Keith Unger, and Dan Reddig. One of these auction items, "All for THE One" quilt poster which was donated by Carma Bartel was auctioned off and donated back. Then actioned off a second time again. Then that person donated it back to LCHS. After the action sale, people from Lustre community including LCHS choir and the band performed the songs and music. "The Piper and the Captain" was performed by LCHS Band, "This world is Not My Home" by MB Quartet, "My Country Tis of Thee" by LCHS Choir, "Who's on The Bake Sale" by Lisa Neufeld and Mindy Olfert, and "Sometimes Alleluia" by Alan Kliewer. The crowd was entertained by several talented groups performing musical numbers. The community and the students helped to clean up the next day. Many people showed up, and we were done in no time! Thank you for the help of everyone who was involved. We are so thankful to God for the success of Schmeckfest. We can't wait for next year!

Who is your friend? By Bryan Chen

March 16th, 2023, was a day for the first two volunteer seniors to speak in chapel. Students are required to complete a 15-minute chapel in order to graduate.

Gabe bravely stood up to be the first speaker. In Gabe's chapel, he started with a prayer, and then he went straight to the point about the importance of making good friends.

Gabe helped us have a better understanding by demonstrating his "friend list." On the left side of the list, he listed all the goals he wanted to achieve. He called on a couple of his friends to read out the characteristics that he assigned to them, and then he put those characteristics on the right side of the list. He showed us who the friends are that he should spend time with. After the demonstration, he quoted the Bible verse from 1 Corinthians 15:33, "Do not be misled: Bad company corrupts good character." The verse clearly told us the importance of making "Good Friends."

He also mentioned a beautiful friendship in the Bible – Jonathan and David. Jonathan knew David would become king, but he still remained friends with David. He trusted God's decision. He was selfless and put himself at risk to protect his friend.

God's Promise Are Always Greater Than the Pain By Mana Okamoto

On Thursday, March 17th, we had an opportunity to listen to Rodas's senior chapel. She talked about "God's Promises Are Always Greater Than the Pain."

She started by asking us this question, "What would you do in the following situation? You had to pack up your belongings and move from the place you loved, you had a nice house, your family and relatives lived near you, and there were no inconveniences. Your landlady now seized your house and told you to move. She says she has another property that is already set up for you, and she promises to take care of all of your expenses too." That was a good scenario for us to imagine what we would do when we are put in Abram's situation in this era.

Rodas then broke down Abram's story and told us the importance of stepping out of our comfort zone and learning to rely on God. She explained a faith formula—"Intellectual agreement + trust = faith." The intellectual agreement is the knowledge that something is true, acquired through teaching and experience. Then she continued, trust is the key. Just like we believe the wind and WIFI exist, believing in God is not different from it. Truly believing in God means you put your weight on him just like you are sitting on a chair. You sit on a chair because you believe it will hold your weight and not fall apart.

She taught us that in everything we do, we should put our weight on Him, which means trust in Him. That is a step toward faith.

National Honor Society by Alexander Chen

On March 26th, 2023, Sunday afternoon, we had ten students that were selected to be a part of the LCHS National Honor Society. Becoming a part of the NHS is very hard. You need to be approved by all the teachers that agree that you have met all four pillars, which include scholarship, service, leadership, and character. These students are Alexander Chen, Bryan Chen, Gabe Alves, Mana Okamoto, and Elijah Lenihan from the senior class; Grace Brown, Alexa Reddig, Sarah Dahl, and Naveen Pilar from the junior class.

To kick off the event, Cayden Klatt, as the only member of the National Honor Society, lit the gold candle, which represents the torch of the honor society. After that, Gabe Alves lit up the red candle representing the scholarship, and Cayden Klatt explained what scholarship meant, according to the NHS; Mana Okamoto lit up the blue candle representing service, and Alexander Chen explained what service meant; Alexa Reddig lit up the green candle representing leadership and Bryan Chen read the about it. Finally, Sarah Dahl lit up the white candle representing the character, and Elijah Lenihan read about character.

All the inductees received their National Honor Society certificate and signed their names on the book to officially become a member of the LCHS chapter of the NHS. After we got the certificate, Pastor Frank Lenihan prayed for us and blessed the food. So, whenever you see our new members of the NHS, please stop and congratulate them.

Last Awana of the Year

This year's Awana went by so quickly. It feels like it was just yesterday that Awana started. On Wednesday, March 29th, Awana 2023 concluded with the Awards Night. The night started with the groups going to their different rooms, where some of the students got an opportunity to finish their AWANA book in order to receive their awards with everyone else. At 7 p.m., the gym was filled with parents and grandparents that attended the awards ceremony. The excitement in the gym was amazing. I'm not sure who was more excited - the kids or the adults. Dawson Olfert, our Awana director, explained what Awana stands for, Approved Workmen Are Not Ashamed. This is based on 2 Timothy 2:15.

First up for their awards were the Cubbies. The smiles on their faces were amazing to see. All of the cubbies received a certificate and a cool cup with different-shaped straws for completing their Honeycomb book. Next up were the Sparks. All the Sparks girls received plaques for completing their books. After the Sparks, it was time for the T & T group to receive their awards. There were a few students that completed their gold verses as well. Trek was the last group to receive their awards. This was a big group this year. All the students received awards for various accomplishments. There are a few students from Trek that finished off this year with Awana, and we hope to see you next year as volunteers.

We would like to thank everyone that volunteered with Awana. Each and everyone made a difference in the students' lives. We also want to thank the parents that helped keep the energy levels up by supplying delicious snacks every week.
