The TUMBLEWEED

Sandros Chapel By: Gabriel Sapp

On October 12th, Chapel was from Sandro Dorsainvil. He attended Lustre Christian High School and graduated in 2014. He is originally from the island country of Haiti, where he now missions and is involved in El Roi. His chapel was about guarding your heart and not letting evil things come into it. He also stated that what comes in is what comes out, also known as the saying, “garbage in, garbage out,” and you should protect what you hear and see. Movies and music can be a gateway to demonic things.

He also said to watch out for artificial intelligence and how easily it could change the bible without you noticing. Sandro told a story about a dog licking a knife with milk on it. The dog kept licking the knife until he realized he was drinking his own blood. Still, the dog could only see the good in drinking the milk off the knife and not see the consequences, and before he knew it, the dog was dead; the moral of the story is while you only see the benefit, God can see the whole picture and see the consequences of your actions.

Elwynn Goossen spoke for chapel on Monday, October 9th. Goossen grew up in a missionary family in Brazil. He initially did not want to become a missionary because his parents were missionaries. He wanted to go into technology instead. He always felt a tug in his heart to become a missionary but had constantly said no to it. He ended up becoming one after going to multiple schools for technology. Goossen and his family have been doing missions in Brazil since 1996. Goossen talked about wanting the things of this world and how we should be chasing after heaven instead of sinful desires. He started with the question, “What are your God-given desires?” and went on to say that

Lustre vs Bainville By: Alexa Reddig

On Friday, October 6th, the Lustre Lady Lions were unable to pull it off. The final score of the last set was 23-25. The Lady Lions look forward to seeing you all come out to support them.

packed up and traveled the two-and-a-half-hour drive to face off against the Bainville Bulldogs. The game started slowly as the referees were late to the show, thus delaying the game a half hour. The Lady Lions fought hard in the first game, but ultimately, the first game ended with a score of 10-25. The Lady Lions came back on fire in the second and third games, each game better than the last. The final score of the second game was 18-25. The Lions hustled throughout the third game, pushing for that win. Hannah led the team in some spectacular serves, stopping the Bulldogs in their tracks, but in the end, the Lady Lions

Lions vs Mavericks By: Aubri Holzrichter

On October 7th, the Lady Lions traveled to Hinsdale to play the North Country Mavericks on their home court. The Lions came to play right at the start, leading 9 to 5 at the beginning of the set. Yet the Mavericks weren't ready to give up. Lustre unfortunately ended up coming short of the set and losing 22 to 25. In the second set, the Lady Lions continued to fight but fell behind once again and lost 25 to 10. But during the set, Alexa bumped the ball into the hoop from the free-throw line, swishing it. Most people would say that was the best play of the game. The Lady Lions tried their hardest in the third set but lost 25 to 13. Even though they lost, Lustre made North Country work for the win. The Lady Lions hustled and were scrappy. The Lustre Lions have sure improved a lot this season and have made a name for themselves. Thank you for your continued support.

Lions vs Wolves By: Cassidy Grider

On October 11th, the Lady Lions traveled to Wolf Point to face off against the Wolves' JV team. This match-up was special, as all the seniors started the game together. The first set was extremely close, having several rallies and good plays from both teams. Even though the Lady Lions gave a valiant effort, Wolf Point stole the first set with a score of 26-24. The second set started off strong for Lustre. Our Lady Lions' serves were on point, and as a result, we earned many aces. Aubri Holzrichter had strong sets, as always, giving a number of opportunities for solid hits. The Lady Lions won the second set with a score of 25-17. Since our girls were playing a JV team, the game was scored like a JV match. The first two sets were the first to 25, while the third through fifth sets would be the first to 15. The third set was another incredible round for our Lady Lions. They ended up victorious with a result of 15-8. Our girls were pretty tired by this point, but that didn't stop them from working hard in the fourth set. The final set was a little bit stressful, as the Wolf Point Wolves were not backing down without a fight. The Lady Lions prevailed, though, and won with a final score of 15-12, making this the fifth win for the Lady Lions in their 23/24 volleyball campaign.

Lustre vs Nashua By: Mitchella Rosidor

On October 13, the Lustre Lady Lions graced the gymnasium wearing their pink T-shirts, hair ribbons, and pink socks in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month. It was a special and exciting night for the Lady Lions as it was their second to last game of the season. The Lady Lions started the night beautifully by winning the first set, 25 to 13. In the second set, the Lady Lions made it look like a piece of cake with Aubri's and Hannah M's astounding serves. With Grace's and Jaden's killer blocks, the Lady Lions were incapable of being defeated, ending the second set at 25 to 12. The third set started with Lady Lions on the lead; they were unstoppable, with Alexa's ardent serves and spikes ending the game with a score of 25 to 15. The Lady Lions have improved tremendously, and we couldn't be prouder of them. We love our Lady Lions.

Spartans in The Den By: Terran Joseph

October 18th, 2023, the Lady Spartans marched down into the Lion's Den to take on the Lady Lions for their volleyball match. It was also senior night making it an adrenaline rush of a game from the start. After the senior night ceremony, the games began, with both teams playing hard and strong. The first set went back and forth for a while until the Spartans took the win with a final score of 25-16. But this was when things got intense. In the second set, both teams switched sides, and then it was time to play. With a very blacked out crowd (crowd dressed in black) behind them, the Lady Lions wanted to take this set and tie it up, they went on to dominate and outplay the Spartans in this set with wonderful setups from Aubri Holzrichter leading to back-to-back kills from Grace Brown and Alexa Reddig and others. At the end of the set, the score was a close 21-24, and the Lady Lions wanted to take this set. With the crowd roaring behind them and one more point to tie the game up an aggressive kill from Aubri sealed the set 26-24. It went on to be a very competitive back-and-forth game but the Spartans took the last 2 sets winning the game.

God over the World By: Sarah Dahl

whatever they may be, God can use them for the mission field. He started talking about how we should be, as Christians, using the examples of Rufus from Proverbs 22:1 and Phoebe from Romans 16:1. He then leads this to the verses from Philimon 1:24 and Colossians 4:14, which is about a man called Demus. Goossen said that Demus was a fellow friend and helper of the Apostle Paul; he would certainly not be expected to walk away from Christianity. Yet, that is what Demus did. Goossen then read 2 Timothy 4: 9-10, about how Demus walked away from the church because he loved the present world and, therefore, chased after it instead of God. Goossen used the example of a Brazilian weed called "Cat Claws." "You can walk into the weed, but getting out of it is a different story," Goossen stated. He went on about what the parts of the weed represented. He said the claws on the weed grab onto you when you try to walk out of it, therefore, it is challenging to get out of the world. Goossen said that the claws represented the world, and went on to say that when someone starts to follow the world, it will be very difficult to get out of it if possible. Goossen continued with another example, relating to a story from more present times. He said that he started a radio broadcast in Brazil called Harvest Radio back in 2004. He chose a man to be a host, and he was perfect for the job. This man, for one, was a supposed Christian; his voice was full of charisma. At some point, though, this man got sucked into the things of this world through “the cravings of physical pleasure,” Goossen stated. This caused this radio announcer to ruin his ministry and his family. Goossen ended by saying that the main point of his speech was that he wanted us to take in the fact that, as Christians, we should resist the temptation of physical pleasures, desires of the world, and flesh. After this, Goossen ended with a prayer over us, with many students pondering what Elwynn Goossen had to say that day.
