The Tumbleweed

What is Truth? by Rachel Pew

The weekly chapel was held on Monday, October 7 in the gym. Jim Solberg was the speaker and had previously spoken at the MB church harvest festival. He started out the chapel by explaining a little bit about himself. He talked about how his parents were Norwegian immigrants and how he went to Christian grade and high school. He talked about how, in 1974, he had gone on a foreign study trip to Israel. He enjoyed the trip and always wanted to go back. When he was in his forties, he felt that God was calling him to a career switch.

to Israel. He and his wife had tried going several times before, but things had never worked out previously; the doors were open that time. He first met the head of Bridges for Peace in Israel. Shortly after, he started volunteering and helping the U.S. branch. After a while, the head of the U.S. branch left, and Bridges for Peace offered him the job. After sharing about himself, he posed the question, "What is truth?" He got this from John 18:38. He then went on to talk about Genesis and John 1 and how fundamental truth was right there in the beginning. He also talked about how when we talk to non-believers, we must keep in mind the truth because if we cannot agree on what truth is, the conversation

Bon Om Touk Cambodia

Also known as the Cambodian Water Festival, Bon Om Touk is a three-day national holiday celebrated in late October or early November, often corresponding with the lunar Mid-Autumn Festival. It marks the end of the monsoon season and the reversal of the flow of the Tonlé Sap River, which flows from the Mekong River into the Tonlé Sap Lake during the rainy season, and then back into the Mekong River during the dry season.

Guy Fawkes Night United Kingdom

Bonfire Night, also known as Guy Fawkes Night, is a British celebration held on November 5th. It commemorates the failure of the Gunpowder Plot of 1605, when a group of Catholic conspirators attempted to blow up the Houses of Parliament and kill King James I. The Gunpowder Plot was foiled the night before it was due to take place and Guy Fawkes, one of the conspirators, was arrested in the cellar of Parliament where he was guarding the explosives. The other conspirators were either killed or captured, and all were eventually executed. In the aftermath of the Gunpowder Plot, Parliament declared November 5th a national day of thanksgiving. Bonfires were lit all over the country, and effigies of Guy Fawkes were burned. The tradition of celebrating Bonfire Night has continued ever since!

Chuseok South Korea

Chuseok, also known as Hangawi, is a major mid-autumn harvest festival and a three-day holiday in Korea celebrated on the 15th day of the 8th month of the lunar calendar on the full moon. It is one of the most important holidays in South Korea, and is a time for families to come together and give thanks for the harvest and for their ancestors.

Feast of St. Martin Germany and France

The Feast of Saint Martin, also known as Martinmas, is a Christian feast celebrated on November 11th. It commemorates the death of Saint Martin of Tours, a 4th-century bishop who was known for his generosity and compassion.

Saint Martin is the patron saint of many different groups, including soldiers, beggars, tailors and wine-makers. In many countries where the holiday is observed, such as France and Germany, people typically eat a goose dinner on Martinmas Eve or Martinmas Day — this tradition is thought to have originated because geese were slaughtered in the fall so that they could be preserved for the winter.

Ognissanti Italy

Ognissanti, also known as All Saint's Day, is a Christian holiday to honor and remember all of the saints, both known and unknown. Celebrated on November 1st each year, the holiday dates back to the early 8th century when it was established by Pope Gregory III.

Those who celebrate Ognissanti visit cemeteries to clean and decorate the graves of their loved ones, leaving flowers, food and drinks in honor of them.

Loy Krathong Lantern Festival – Thailand

This festival is celebrated throughout Thailand and in nearby countries including Laos, Kelantan and Kedah. The name roughly translates as 'to float ritual vessel or lamp' and comes from the main activity associated with the celebration. A krathong is a small floating basket, normally made of leaves and holding a small portion of some kind of traditional Thai dish, dessert, or a small coin.

These baskets are then floated on a river. Many Thai people use the krathong to thank Goddess Khongkha, the Goddess of Water and River. The festival takes place on the evening of the full moon of the 12th month in the traditional Thai lunar

“That you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God;”

Colossians 1:10 (NKJV)

calendar. This means that it normally falls in the month of November. In 2024 it will take place on 16 November.

Halloween: U.S., Canada, Scotland

Halloween has become global, though it's most widespread in the United States and Canada. Children dress up in costumes and go door-to-door "trick-or-treating." Families may place carved pumpkins, known as Jack-o'-Lanterns, out front. Children show off their costumes in exchange for some sweet treats.

On Halloween night in Scotland, this practice is known as "guising." Kids also perform jokes and short performances to earn their candy treats. Halloween dates back about 2,000 years to the ancient Celtic festival of Samhain.

Origins also include Catholic traditions and religious services. Celebrants would light fires and dress up in scary attire to ward off ghosts on All Hallows Eve, the evening before All Souls' Day on November 1. Pope Gregory III designated this date as the Day of the Dead in the 8th century.

Thanksgiving: United States and Canada

Thanksgiving is celebrated in both Canada and the USA, with particular emphasis in the U.S. In Canada, Thanksgiving falls in October, and in the U.S., near the end of November.

The day calls for a feast. Traditionally, on holidays, families come together, even from a distance, so everyone is seated together around the table. A traditional Thanksgiving meal involves roasted turkey, cranberry sauce, sweet potatoes, and of course, a warm pumpkin pie—just to name a few items! Throughout U.S. history, many immigrants have added their own cultural traditions to the American Thanksgiving table, from rice with gravy to ube cheesecake and so much more.

SPORTS

The Lady Lions Take on the Scotties By Abby Olfert

On Thursday, October 3, the Lady Lions traveled to Glasgow to compete in a match against the Scotties' JV team. As it was a JV match, junior varsity scoring was used, meaning the first two sets were played to 25 and the last three were to 15. The first set ended 25 to 17, with the Scotties on top.

Next, the Lady Lions JV went in for a set. The starters included Sidney Klatt, Natalie Fast, Holly Hilke-mann, Lauryn Holzrichter, Ashtyn Traeholt, and Justice Byers, with Lauren Fast as the libero. Though they fought hard, the Scotties won it again, 25 to 8.

For the third set, varsity went back in. Starters were Jaden Gibson, Abby Olfert, Hannah Brown, Lauryn Holzrichter, Rachel Pew, and Sidney Klatt. Lauren Fast subbed in as libero. The final score of the third set was 15 to 11 – Scotties. Although it was a tough match, the Lady Lions worked hard and are looking forward to their next competition.

Jeremiah 29:11 – “For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

Lustre - Richey Lambert - Plentywood Triangular By Jaden Gibson

On Friday, October 4th, the Lady Lions made their way to Richey to play in a triangular match. The Lions took on both the Richey-Lambert Royals and The Plentywood Wildcats. The day started out with Lustre vs Richey-Lambert. The Lions fell to the Fusion 17 - 25 in the first set. The second set brought a bit of a struggle for the Lady Lions, with a final score of 8 - 25. Though the second set was rough, the Lions came back fighting in the third with a close final set of 22 - 25. The Richey-Lambert Fusion joined the Lustre Lady Lions and finished the game in prayer. Immediately after this loss, the Lions took on The Plentywood Wildcats. The Lions took a minute to warm up against Plentywood with a final score in the first set of 8 - 25. By the second set, the Lady Lions were ready to go, keeping up with the Wildcats better than before, earning a final score of 16 - 25. Finally came the third set, where the Lions, though fighting hard, fell to the Wildcats 12 - 25. The Plentywood Wildcats joined the Lustre Lady Lions to Pray, which brought the end of a long day of volleyball.

The Bulldogs Take on the Lions By Mason Hilkemann

On October 11, 2024, the Bainville Bulldogs traveled to Lustre to play some varsity volleyball. The game started poorly for the Lions, but they still managed to put up a score of 13 to Bainville's 25. The second set went slightly better, with the Lions scoring 14 and putting together some great volleys and sending some great serves over the net. Jaden Gibson put up some good blocks, and the freshmen represented with Kencia Brown and Lauren Fast putting up multiple digs each.

The third set was also full of teamwork, but unfortunately, the Bulldogs took the win with a score of 14 – 25. Overall, it was a good game for the Lions, who worked together and learned some things they needed to work on and played well against one of the best teams in the division.

The Mavericks take down the Lions By Byron Ewing

On Saturday evening, October 12, 2024, the Lady Lions took on the North Country Mavericks. This was Pink Out night (which happens for one game during the month of October) to show support and raise awareness for breast cancer patients. Both teams wore pink warm-up uniforms in support of this and kept them on for the entirety of the game. The Lions' home crowd did not disappoint either; they filled the bleachers with shades of pink to show their support. The Lady Lions came out strong in the first set, keeping a slight score difference between them and the Mavericks entirety of the first set. The Mavericks ended up taking the first set 25-19. The ladies struggled to find their rhythm during the second set, and the Mavericks capitalized on this by winning this set 25-7. In the third set, the ladies fought and found some of their momentum again, bringing the score a little closer. It wasn't enough, though, as the Mavericks could keep up their dominance and close out the third set, winning it 25-20. We love watching you ladies improve and can't wait to see what you guys bring this upcoming week!

Cowgirls Bring a Challenge on Senior Night By Clay Reddig

On Monday, October 21st the Culbertson Cowgirls made a trip to the Lion's Den for Senior Night. The night started with a brief ceremony honoring our following senior Lady Lions: Abby Olfert, Rachel Pew, Jaden Gibson, Katie Calderon, and Meredith Valentine. We knew the Cowgirls were evenly matched with our own Lady Lions, so everyone was hyped for an exciting game. All of the boys even dressed up for the game with a "Whiteout" theme. The match started out hot with an exciting set. Jaden led the charge out of the gate with exciting blocks that uproared the crowd. The ladies fed off of the loud crowd and had a promising lead towards the end of the first set. However, the Cowgirls fought back late to win the first set 25-23. After winning the first set, Culbertson started firing on all cylinders and built up a solid lead early in the second set. Our Lions fought back with a series of nice serves from Abby. This awakened our team to rally in the end, but it was not enough to win the match -tying second set. Culbertson went up 2-0 in the match, with the second set score ending in another nail-biter with a score of 25-22. The Lady Lions tried to get going again to extend the match in the third set, but the Cowgirls were too much. They used energy from their 2 previous wins to capitalize on the third set (25-12) that ultimately won them the match. Although we lost, a huge shout-out goes to our Lady Lions for fighting hard to represent Lustre and their families really well on Senior Night!

Cowgirls Bring a Challenge on Senior Night By Meredith Valentine

Last week the Lady Lions traveled to Scobey to compete against the Spartans. They came out fighting hard but unfortunately could not pull off the win. Even though they did not win, they still fought hard and showed how they honored God while on the court. The first set was only 9-25, but we slowly worked our way back, with the next set being 10-25. The third set was their best set with the final score being 15-25. The Lady Lions have come a long way this season by showing that no matter what they will never quit or give up. They have faced many challenges in this past season not only with losing 3 seniors but also learning to work together as a new team. The seniors have all stepped up to help teach the young team how to work together and never give up. As they advance to the district tournament, we are all very excited to see how they come together and fight hard against the opposing teams. We also want to honor God and respect each other, coaches, and referees. We look forward to seeing you all come out and support our Lady Lions on Thursday, October 31st, on their first day of the district tournament.
